4. HOW WE WILL USE YOUR DATA

OFTEC will process your data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We only collect your data for the purposes of granting certification with the OFTEC registration schemes. We will process and hold your data lawfully, fairly and securely. Your data will be processed accurately and kept up to date either by you notifying us of any changes, or via your own updates to your online registration account.

As part of the agreement to provide your business and technician(s) with registration, OFTEC will keep you updated on any industry changes that affect the work you do. Receiving these updates counts towards your commitment to obtain industry-related professional development to enable continuous registration. We will also notify you on any matters affecting your registration and will also send you reminders before your qualifications or registration expires. These may be by post, email and/or telephone.

In addition to providing your certification with the OFTEC registration schemes, OFTEC may introduce new or discounted products and services for heating professionals, or offer other related services provided by third parties. To choose whether to receive these offers or not, please indicate your preferences below. Please note, you can change these preferences at any time.

- Tick this box if you would like to hear about new or discounted products and services offered by OFTEC, including OFTEC Direct, a specialist online outlet of essential equipment for heating technicians.
- Tick this box if you would like to hear from OFTEC's external partners that provide you with business services such as low-cost insurance, web design and discounted fuel cards.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

1. A business audit (if applicable) will be conducted by your regional OFTEC inspector within three months of your registration. The audit will include a competency check, understanding of unsafe situations procedure and regional legislative requirements. Failure to undertake an audit or failure to meet the required standard when requested may result in suspension of registration. Following the audit your ID card and certificate will be sent to you.
2. The OFTEC registration scheme is accredited to BS EN ISO/IEC 17065:2012. Requirements for bodies certifying products, processes and services (excluding the Republic of Ireland). The OFTEC competent person scheme operating in England and Wales is run in accordance with the Building Regulations competent person scheme conditions of authorisation. The competent person schemes operating in Jersey, Guernsey and the Isle of Man also adopt these conditions.
3. Before returning your application to OFTEC, please ensure that you have completed all relevant sections and provided the necessary payment details and enclosures.
4. Please be advised that your application will not be processed and payment will not be taken until we have received confirmation of successful assessment from either yourself (in the form of copies of your valid certificate(s) of achievement for assessments), or from the certification body. This can take up to six weeks from the date of assessment to come through from the certification body. From receipt of your completed application and correct payment we will endeavour to process your application within seven days.
5. Direct debits for one year registration periods are 'rolling'. This means that before your renewal date we will notify you in writing that your renewal is pending and advise you of the date and amount that will be debited for the new registration period. Renewal will go ahead unless you advise us in writing that you do not wish to renew or that you wish to renew but pay by other means.

OFTEC DIRECT DEBIT SCHEME TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Once your direct debit has been set up, you will received an Advance Notice via email confirming the payment date (1st of each month or thereafter), and monthly payment amount.
- If you are registering for a one year registration, you will receive an annual email to let you know about your renewal which gives you time to cancel your direct debit or change your bank details, (new mandate will be required for change of bank details). If you wish to continue and your bank details remain the same you do not need to do anything. You will receive a further Advance Notice by e-mail.
- Unfortunately, it is not possible to transfer a technicians registration from one company to another during the direct debit period. The technician will need to complete an application from to register with their new company and pay the technician fee in full.

Rejected direct debit payments

In the unlikely event that your direct debit payments are rejected we will contact you for payment of this rejected direct debit amount. If payments are rejected more than twice within the time frame of your collections your OFTEC registration will be suspended until the remainder of the amount owed is paid in full by credit or debit card.
